General Information

Pursuant to Section 10-37 of the City Code, the City has designated six (6) sites within the City on public property (described more specifically in Appendix I of the Business Licenses Administrative Regulations included in this packet) upon which peddlers, solicitors and transient merchants may be permitted to operate for the sale of food items. The purpose of this document is to solicit sealed bids from interested peddlers, solicitors and transient merchants for the use of these six sites.

- Application for Peddler/Solicitor/Transient Merchant Permit (Food Vending on City Directed Sale Locations)
- Business Licenses Administrative Regulations (Including Site Maps depicted in Appendix I)

All Applications and Bids should be submitted in a sealed envelope to the City Clerk's office by 2:00 PM on Thursday, March 31, 2022 and shall be clearly marked on the outside of the envelope "CITY DIRECTED SITE BID."

Evaluation & Review

Permits will generally be awarded to the highest bidder for each location. Notwithstanding, the City may also consider, among others, the following factors:

- i. Financial responsibility of the bidder;
- ii. City's past dealings with the bidder;
- iii. The type of goods proposed to be sold by the bidder;
- iv. Adequacy of equipment if vending from stand, cart and/or any other mobile device;
or
- v. Any other pertinent considerations.

The City may reject bids for any or all the following reasons, among others:

- i. Failure of the bidder to respond to the requirements of the request for bid;
- ii. Submission of a late bid, mistake or error by the bidder;
- iii. Fraud, collusion, or conflict of interest;
- iv. Indebtedness to the City;
- v. Any previous "violations of public trust" by the bidder; or
- vi. Any other reason in the City's sole discretion.

The City Clerk will open all bids submitted at 2:00 PM on Thursday, March 31, 2022. Bid opening will be open to the public. All bidders will be timely notified of any award of permit or of a decision not to award a permit.
